Armed Men Captured With Safe at Elkins Park Confess to Looting Cellars

STOLEN WINE RECOVERED

Two armed men, captured last night in Elkins Park at the point of a pistol, are said to have confessed to being implicated in five previous robberies in that section. They are Samuel Rubin, 4530 Woodland avenue, and John Neff, 1524 Bainbridge street, both Negroes.

Both will have a hearing before Chief Hollowell in the Ogontz police station this evening and held without bail for a further hearing Friday. It is expected that three more charges of robbery will be lodged against them then.

The men were captured after they had entered the home of J. B. Haber, Westview and High School roads, Joseph Manion, of the Ogontz police, surprised the two as they were leaving the estate. One carried a small safe under his coat.

They surrendered when Manion appeared from behind a clump of bushes, where he had hid upon hearing suspicious noises to lay in wait for the robbers. In the rear of the house cases of champagne valued at $5000 were found, packed and ready to be carried out.

When taken to the station house a jimmy taken from Rubin was found to fit the hole that had been chiseled in the wall where the safe had been.

According to Chief Hollowell the men are connected with the robberies of several residences in Elkins Park and Ogontz. They are believed to have entered the home of A. Silverman at Ashbourne road and Spring avenue in 1920, when $250 worth of tools and tires were taken, and again in March of this year when they took liquor valued at $100.

The residence of Charles Silverman at Ashbourne road and Park avenue, was entered last year and tires valued at $500 taken.

The Haber residence was entered once before, on July 15, and at that time $400 worth of liquor was stolen.

N. J. NATIONAL GUARDMEN LEAVE CAMDEN FOR CAMP

Battery B, 112th Artillery, Will Go to Long Island

Offered by men who saw service in the World War, Battery B, 112th Field Artillery, N. G. N. J., left Camden last night for the annual two weeks' encampment at Montauk Point, Long Island.

No horses or equipment were taken, as the battery will go into training with the Seventh Field Artillery, S. I., and will use the equipment of that unit.

Captain Charles V. Dickinson is in command of the battery, which will spend the first week in elementary work and the second week in intensive training. His aides are First Lieutenants George O. Miller and George Murray and Second Lieutenant J. William Wells. All four men are veterans and served with the Twenty-ninth Division in France.

Battery B was accompanied by the Combat Train of the First Artillery, N. G. N. J., under the command of Captain William J. Mooney, of Newark; First Lieutenant Robert B. Smith, of Palmyra, and Second Lieutenant J. Warren Dowling, of Camden.

BUSINESS MEN ON OUTING

Toga Association Resumes Trips to Atlantic City

After a lapse of seven years the Toga Business Men's Association will tomorrow resume their annual excursion to Atlantic City. About 5000 persons are expected to take the special trains on the Pennsylvania Railroad to the seashore resort. The first train leaves Broad Street Station at 7 P. M., daylight-saving time. Four more specials will leave North Philadelphia as fast as they are filled.

KISSED BY A KIDNAPPER, BUT SHE SAVES HER BABY

War Veteran's Wife Scratches and Kicks Fairmount Park Assaultant

Mrs. Mathilda Silway, wife of an overseas veteran, battled successfully in Fairmount Park yesterday with a young man who first ran into a clump of trees with her baby and then seized and kissed her.

Mrs. Silway, who lives at 2544 Turner street, scratched and kicked her assailant while she shouted for help. Her screams were heard by a park guard. The man escaped as the guard approached.

"I took my baby in a coach to the Oxford street entrance of the park," Mrs. Silway told the guard. "I sat down on a bench, and after awhile the man sat down beside me. He tried to engage in conversation, but I paid no attention to him. Suddenly he grabbed the bars of the coach and wheeled my baby up an incline into a clump of trees."

"I ran after him. He let go of the coach and tried to embrace and kiss me. I was scratching his face and kicking him when he turned about and ran off."

Mrs. Silway is a German by birth and is the wife of Frank Silway, thirty years old, who served with the American Army of Occupation in the Coblenz district.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS PICNIC

10,000 Children Spend Day at Willow Grove

This is Sunday School Day at Willow Grove. Between 8000 and 10,000 children from Philadelphia and Montgomery County are engaging in games and athletic competition under the supervision of various religious organizations.

Amusements at the park will be free to the visitors for two hours. This afternoon H. C. Lincoln will lead the children in a chorus. Addresses will be made by the Rev. H. R. Johnson, of Willow Grove, and the Rev. H. H. Bird, of Abington.

Child Loses Two Fingers

When companions started the machinery of a hoisting machine near her home yesterday, seven-year-old Anna Koelinsky, 4 Lock street, Mumsyunk, placed her hand in the chain and suffered the loss of two fingers. She was taken to the Memorial Hospital.

DOCTOR ROBBED IN DEATH RACE

Negro Physician Attacked by Bandit While Speeding to Bedside of Patient

ROBBER LEAVES MEDICINE

While Dr. Herbert Reed, a Negro doctor, of 2345 Lancaster avenue, was on the way to attend a patient early this morning, he was attacked at Lancaster avenue and Saunders street by a highwayman who beat him with a club and took $75 in cash.

A plea that he was on the way to attend a woman in critical condition did not deter the robber.

A resident of the neighborhood who saw the physician struggling with the bandit fired several shots from a second-story window. The robber fled after taking Dr. Reed's money. He permitted him to retain his medical case.

"You'll need that in your business," he said, as he ran away.

The physician was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital, where severe injuries to his head were treated.

He gave the police a good description of his assailant and said he wore a polka-dot tie with a horseshoe pin.

With the description furnished by the doctor they started an exhaustive hunt. About two hours after the attack they saw a Negro who answered to the description given by Dr. Reed about to enter a restaurant near Forty-second and Market streets. As they approached him he darted down Forty-second street, but was caught after a chase of two blocks.

The Negro stood against a wall as though about to show fight, but before he could resist Sergeant Reaney and two other patrolmen overpowered him.

SWINDLER ROBS NEWSBOYS

Police Seek Confidence Man Who Tricks Lad Out of $10

Police are looking for a confidence man who preys on newsboys. They call him "one of the meanest ever."

His latest victim was Ismae Safad, 2005 Kensington avenue, who was tricked out of $10 belonging to his uncle. The boy was going to a trust company for change when the swindler spoke to him.

The confidence man told the boy he had several customers for his news route. Safad walked on with him and the swindler asked why he was going into the bank. The boy told him about the $10.

The trickster gave the boy a paper bag suggesting the money would be safer there. Safad put the money in the bag and then pocketed the bag. The swindler then left him. A few minutes later the boy examined the bag and found the other had switched bags on him, replacing the money-filled receptacle with one stuffed with paper.

Safad said the swindler was about nineteen years old, and that he had black hair, a rough complexion, wore a dark cap and a blue suit.

FLEEING STOWAWAY KILLED

Jumps From Steamship and Is Hit by Propeller

Determined to enter this country at all costs, George Rogers, a Jamaica Negro stowaway, plunged from the deck of the United Fruit Company's liner Bowden into the Delaware Bay.

The man was discovered soon after the ship left Port Antonio. He was looked up, but got out Sunday night and leaped into the river. The current was exceptionally strong at that time and that, combined with the suction of the boat, dragged him directly in the path of the big freighter. Before it could be stopped he had been dashed against the propeller and a little later disappeared beneath the surface.

DESERTED INFANT FOUND IN WOODS

Fairview Resident Hears Wall, Investigates and Discovers 4-Month-Old Baby

TAKEN TO CAMDEN HOSPITAL

A pair of blue eyes stared peacefully and a whimsical smile played on the lips of a tiny four-month-old baby as it lay this morning in its crib at the West Jersey Homeopathic Hospital, Camden. Its little hands reached out weakly to clutch the wrist of a white-clad physician. Then, unable to keep awake longer, it dozed off.

The tot was found last night, hidden in a clump of woods bordering Ephraim pike and Collings road, Fairview, John Abbott, whose home is about twenty-five feet from the spot, was preparing to retire at 10:30 o'clock, when he heard a wail, followed in another moment by a faint cry. Abbott investigated.

In the woods he almost stumbled over a small white bundle carefully laid against a tree trunk. When he unwrapped what he thought was a package of rags he looked into the upturned face of a baby. It smiled and nestled in his arms.

Abbott notified the Camden police and the infant was removed to the hospital. Because of the absence of mosquito bites, physicians said the baby had not been abandoned for any length of time. It wore a plain white dress and a white cap. Clutched in its hand was a half-filled bottle of milk. No identification marks were found. Hospital attaches will take care of the infant until some disposition can be made of it.

Edward A. Hyde was sworn in today by Mayor Van Horn, of Camden, as chief of police, succeeding E. A. Grosvenor, veteran head of the department, who will retire on pension in August. Chief Hyde has been assistant during the last seven years, and is very popular. He was given a reception.

The new official was appointed patrolman in 1894; became a sergeant in 1899, a captain in 1908, and assistant chief in 1915.

Captain Charles Humes has been mentioned as the probable new assistant chief.

J. V. Gosline Gets Rating Job

J. V. Gosline, of 5219 Litchfield street, was appointed compensation rating expert of the State Insurance Department by Commissioner Donaldson yesterday. Mr. Gosline succeeds the late E. H. Downey. He was formerly statistician for the department, and will make his headquarters at the Compensation Rating Bureau, 105 South Twelfth street.

Special Features of Pembroke Oxford

Note the close, firmly woven texture of Pembroke Oxford. Not only is the weaving better, but the yarn has been specially selected.

The fabric has an exceptional finish on both sides. It has no fuzz, which you so often find in cloths of this character, and just enough mercerization.

Pembroke Oxford has been specially shrunk—a very important consideration in such shirtings.

We think you will agree that Pembroke Oxford is one of the finest cheviots you've ever seen. Eagle Shirts of Pembroke Oxford have all the advantages of make as well as fine fabric.

CENSOR WOULD BE MAYOR

The Rev. Isaac W. Bagley Announces Candidacy in Camden

The Rev. Isaac W. Bagley, motion-picture censor, has announced himself a receptive candidate for Mayor of Camden.

"A man in the Mayor's office in Camden who is not tied hand and foot and fearful to express his own mind would be something absolutely new and worth while," he said. "No Mayor in Camden within my memory dared to form his own policy and attempt to carry it out."

Mr. Bagley said he was not seeking the office and would make no pledges or promises to win the nomination. But he warned that if elected he would demand "a non-commercial" city, that vice would be routed, that dance halls and poolrooms would be regulated and that the cabaret must go.

FIRE IN RESTAURANT

Blaze of Unknown Origin Does About $800 Damage

About $800 damage resulted from a fire of unknown origin last night in the restaurant of Gus George, at 107 South Third street. An alarm was turned in by Reserve Policeman Reiche, who saw smoke pouring from the kitchen in the rear of the eating house.

At Jefferson Hospital, which is almost immediately opposite the scene of the blaze, the superintendent reported that although there was some slight excitement in the wards, the patients were "reasonably quiet."
